

Fifth Annual Parkinson's Disease Patient and Caregiver Symposium

Saturday, November 17, 2007

Registration: 8:45 to 9:30 a.m.

Program: 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

“Parkinson's Disease From Lab to Life”

I. Keynote Address - Gene Therapies for Parkinson's Disease

Martha C. Bohn, PhD

II. Clinical Update

Tanya Simuni, MD

III. Neurosurgery Update

Joshua M. Rosenow, MD

IV. Ask the Doctors: Q and A

Tanya Simuni, MD, Joshua M. Rosenow, MD, Cindy Zadikoff, MD and Aleksandar Videnovic, MD

V. Choice of 3 Sessions led by Northwestern Parkinson's Disease and Movement Disorders Center Specialists

- Young Onset Parkinson's - Cindy Zadikoff, MD
- Caregiver Support - Diane Breslow, MSW, LCSW
- Just for People with Parkinson's: Music and Exercise - Erin Finnegan, BS, PT and Elizabeth Stegemoller, BS, BA, MT-BC

An art exhibit “The Art of Parkinson's” will be open for viewing throughout the day.

Space is limited. To register for a lecture and obtain location information, please call Northwestern Memorial's Health Resources and Physician Referral Services at 312-926-8400.